Lands Open.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The President has signed a proclamation opening to settlement and homestead entry the newly ceded lands of the Sac and Fox, Iowa and Pottawatomie Indians, in the eastern part of Oklahoma. These lands may be entered upon next Tuesday, the 22d inst., at 12 o'clock noon, central standard time.

The proclamation reviews in detail the agreements between the government and several tribes and bands of Indians, and also the acts of Congress authorizing and accepting confirmation of those agreements and providing for the proclamation. Notice is given in the proclamation that no person shall be permitted to enter upon and occupy the land until the time given and no person violating this provision shall be permitted to enter any of said lands or acquire a right thereto. Further notice is given that the land included in the proclamation will be attached to eastern and Oklahoma land districts. Attached to the proclamation is a schedule giving a description of the land to be opened, the aggregate of which is 266,243 acres.

Regular Revolutions.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Advices from Managua, Nicaragua, received state that on account of the coming elections in this country, the excitement is at fever heat. President Bogran is desirous of another term which the majority of the people are opposed to. Antonio Ezeta, a brother of the President of Salvador, declared his intention of running for President of Honduras and in consequence 2,000 men have been stationed on the Honduras frontier to prevent this invasion. Salvador has three thousand troops at San Miguel and more men still hurrying to the frontier. Guatemala is also placing troops for the aid of Honduras. Nicaragua, according to her treaty with Salvador, is bound to help her, and this week will have 1,500 troops on her frontier and 2,500 men under arms in Managua.

Canadian Boodlers.

MONTREAL, Sept. 18.—It is rumored at Quebec that the governments decided to force an appeal to the electors of the province to sustain them in their refusal to accede to the demand of Lieutenant Governor Angers; that a Royal Commission be appointed to investigate the charges of "boodling" brought against members of the government. Owing to the interference of the Dominion Government the tide which at first was dead against Premier Mercier is now setting in his favor and his friends say the Lieutenant Governor's action was the best thing that could have happened for him.

Wanted the Earth.

PORT-AU-PRINCE (Hayti), Sept. 18.—President Hippolyte, in the course of a conversation with a newspaper correspondent and in answer to a question regarding the failure of negotiations for obtaining Nicholas Mole for a coal-station by the United States, said: "It was neither Mr. Douglass' color nor in any way his fault. Shall I tell you where the fault lay? It lay with the United States government having conceived the idea that such negotiations could succeed by any possibility or under any circumstances. There is where the fault lay."

Smoke in Cherokee Strip.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 18.—A Star special from Guthrie, Oklahoma Territory, says great clouds of smoke are rising from the Cherokee strip to-day and thousands of acres are being burned over. The cause of the fire is not known, but it is thought the boomers have commenced their raid and are carrying out their threat to burn the grass off the entire country.

Latest from Chile.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—An Iquique struck the town on September 15th, which caused great damage to shipping in the harbor. The hurricane lasted for half an hour and was accompanied by a heavy rain, an occurrence previously unknown.

A Herald Valparaiso cablegram, under date of yesterday, says: Not a single member of Balmaceda's government is now in office.

The German warship Leipzig left here to-day for Coquimbo. The British war vessel Champion also leaves here to-day. She is bound north under orders to Esquimalt.

The report of the appointments of a Minister of Industry and of Antonio Mattas Minister of Foreign Affairs were confirmed to-day by official announcement.

The national holidays began to-day. They will continue until September 26th. All business houses will be closed. Great festivities are in progress.

Convention Next May.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—M. H. de Young, editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, and a member of the National Republican Executive Committee, arrived here last night from New York in company with General Clarkson. To a Post reporter he said:

"The Executive Committee will shortly call a meeting of the National Committee which will determine the time and place for holding the National Convention. The convention is to be held within six months after the meeting of the National Committee and so as to avoid the extreme Summer heat. The Committee will doubtless convene here in November, and the convention will take place some time during the month of May, 1892."

McCann Defends Egan.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Admiral McCann, who commanded the United States squadron in the Chilean waters during the late war, comes to the defense of Minister Egan in a statement published in the Post this morning. He says: "Egan was fiercely assailed by the newspapers of the victorious party, though it was through his intervention that great leniency was exercised by Balmaceda. His conduct is not understood aright even in this country, but I want to say all his actions have been those of a clear-headed diplomat and an honorable man."

President's Family.

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—Mrs. Harrison, accompanied by Mrs. McKee and baby, arrived here yesterday from Cape May, and are staying at the Woodland Park Hotel at Newton, a pretty little suburb, until repairs in the White House are completed. The ladies will remain here a month and be visited occasionally by the President. He comes on next week.

A Bank Falls Twice.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 18.—A Star special from Topeka, Kansas, says the United States Savings Bank, which failed last March, was again placed in the hands of a receiver this morning. William Sims, ex-State Treasurer, was appointed receiver. Nothing definite concerning the liabilities and assets can be learned.

Man Hanged.

EAGLE PASS (Tex.), Sept. 18.—R. H. Duncan was hanged here at 11:25 this morning. The crime for which he was executed was the murder in February, 1889, of Will Easton's family of four persons, of Sansaba county, Texas. The motive for the murder will perhaps be discovered.

Leap for Life.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—Lincoln Person, a noted desperado, one of a number of prisoners being taken to the Penitentiary, picked a lock on his handcuff and then escaped by jumping from a train which was going at the rate of forty miles an hour.

Contract Forfeited.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 18.—The Mexican government has declared the concession granted Messrs. Ellis and Ferguson for the colonization of Negroes in Mexico forfeited on account of non-compliance with the contract.

Nicaragua Cyclone.

MANAGUA (Nicaragua), Sept. 18.—A terrific cyclone occurred at San Jose, near Leon, on September 9th. It destroyed houses, uprooted trees and caused a great panic among the residents. Many persons are reported injured.

EMPEROR WILLIAM

Gives Offense to the French.

FIELD AND FOREST FIRES.

London "Times" Comments on China.

Accused of Violating the Modus Vivendi.

Emperor William Condemned.

By Cable and Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 18.—The whole press of this city condemns Emperor William's speech at Erfurt, in which it is reported he alluded to Napoleon I as a "Corsica Parvenu."

Le Paris says: "This violent attack on a man of genius and greatness like Napoleon will have no diplomatic results. It simply reveals the character of a monarch who seizes every occasion to revile France and hasten revenge."

Le Journal says: "The speech proves recent events have rudely dispelled the Emperor's dreams. He wanted Europe to be blindly submissive to Prussian hegemony, and finds himself confronted by nations which have recovered and developed themselves and which laugh at his threats."

La France says: "This time it is not we who can be accused of talking revenge. It is the German Emperor, who reminds us that armes are things of a day. His remarks are an impudent outrage on the patriotism of a great people."

Failed to Find Him.

NEVADA CITY, Sept. 18.—Sheriff Dunster and ex-City Marshal Neagle returned home this morning after a 16-hour hunt for the murderer of Superintendent Gallavotti of the Derby mine. On the South Yuba grade they found the track of a No. 8 or 9 boat leading from the point on the hill where the shooter stood, down to the road. Here they were joined by parties from North Bloomfield. Suspicion fell on George Clarke, a gambler living in that town. Constable Penrose detailed men to track him from the house. They found foot-prints of the same size as Clarke's along the trail leading from his house to the South Yuba canyon in the vicinity of the killing. Guards were then placed by Dunster and Neagle around the house, but when Penrose went into the house two hours later, Clarke had disappeared. Men are seeking to ascertain his whereabouts.

Comments on China.

By Cable and Associated Press.

KINGSTON (N. Y.), Sept. 18.—The trustees of the Ulster County Savings Institution have removed James E. Ostrander from the office of Treasurer, finding he had misappropriated funds. The amount is variously estimated at from sixty to eighty thousand dollars. This will embarrass the bank. Ostrander is under arrest at his house and it is thought the matter will be adjusted by his turning over real estate sufficient to cover the amount.

Treasure Removed.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Late yesterday afternoon Commissioners Mendenhall and Melam, who were sent to Bering Sea to examine and report concerning the condition of the seals and fisheries there, had a conference with President Harrison. They declared a stop must be put to the killing of the seals in the open sea for several years if it is desired to perpetuate this species of fur-bearing animal.

Not Aware of It.

By Cable and Associated Press.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 18.—The Chinese government, it is announced, is not aware of any threatened naval demonstration upon the part of the combined fleets of the powers. It is also stated there is no truth in the statement that the Chinese government sent a note to the powers in regard to the outrages complained of by the foreign Ministers.

Rain Makers.

By Associated Press.

EL PASO, Sept. 18.—The work of the government rain makers commenced this morning. The conditions are more favorable to-day than yesterday. The experiments to-day are being witnessed by an immense crowd.

Officers Arrested.

By Associated Press.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 18.—In consequence of revelations by burglar Andrew L. M. Hadden, attorney, and Cal Tucker, night watchman at the jail, were arrested on a charge of aiding prisoners to escape.

Forest Fires.

By Associated Press.

CUMBERLAND (Wis.), Sept. 18.—Forest fires are raging in the counties immediately south of this city and a strong wind prevails. Several farm houses and barns, two wood yards near the Omaha track and a large amount of other property was destroyed. The village of Perley was almost wiped out by the fire.

Bolter Explosion.

By Associated Press.

LAKE PLACID (N.Y.), Sept. 18.—A report has reached this city of the killing of three men at Montville, ten miles from here, by the explosion this morning of a bolter in a jelly factory. The entire building was demolished. It was reported later that two little girls were among the killed.

Field Fires.

By Associated Press.

LAS VEGAS (N. D.), Sept. 18.—A fire started mysteriously on a prairie near Cramer's farm, six miles north of here. Nearly thirty thousand bushels of wheat were destroyed. At latest reports the fire was still raging.

Negro Hanged.

By Associated Press.

SAVANNAH (Ga.), Sept. 18.—Albert Mores, alias Grant Kitchen, the negro wife-murderer, was hanged in the county jail this morning.

Violating the Modus Vivendi.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, British Minister, has officially called the attention of the United States to the violation of the terms of the modus vivendi in effect between the two countries, as to catching seal in the Bering sea. By agreement between the two countries the North America Commercial Company, which leases the seal islands from the United States, is restricted in the catch of seal this year to 7,000 skins. The alleged Commercial Company has exceeded this catch, thus violating the modus vivendi and the British government called the United States to account for it.

Williams, of the Treasury Department, made a special report on this branch of the seal question to the Treasury Department with a request that its contents be laid before the British Minister for transmission to the Foreign Office in London. The report cannot be accurately ascertained, but it is understood he makes admission that the North America Commercial Company exceeded the limit of catches of 7,000 skins fixed by the modus vivendi. The matter is regarded as quite important and may lead to the modus vivendi being declared inoperative after this date.

Dutch Dander.

By Cable and Associated Press.

BERLIN, Sept. 18.—The Deutsche Revue published an article signed, "A Late Ambassador," which contains this: "The Dardanelles question is not so remote from German interests as is calcuated by Bismarckian tradition. Russian strategists," the writer says, "admire the road to Constantinople lies through Vienna, and therefore Germany is bound to maintain Austrian integrity. Russia aims at becoming the ruler of Europe and Asia. Bismarck's hope that he will bleed to death is too forlorn to depend upon."

Le Journal says: "This time it is not we who can be accused of talking revenge. It is the German Emperor, who reminds us that armes are things of a day. His remarks are an impudent outrage on the patriotism of a great people."

AN AERONAUT'S JAG.

His Death the Result of His Own Folly.

Daring Donald, the aeronaut, dropped with his parachute from his balloon at Weehawken, and falling into the top of a tree, broke three of his ribs and had to hire a substitute for his next ascension. A man named George White applied and Donald said:

"I hired the young man to take me up till I was able to get back to business. He was to get $50 every time he dropped from the clouds. His first and last ascension was Wednesday. I understand the filling of the balloon with hot air. At 6:15 o'clock in the evening everything was ready and there was a big crowd on the grounds. The young man took hold of the trapse-bar with his hands, I signalled to let go the ropes, and the balloon carried him up. He was dressed in the costume of a circus acrobat, and when he had ascended about 500 feet he climbed upon the trapse-bar and sat there. The balloon was about 1,000 feet high when a current of wind struck it and carried it out over the North River."

"When it was over the middle of the stream it began to descend rapidly. I could plainly see the aeronaut sitting on the trapse-bar as the balloon went down. It struck the water and went down the current. The aeronaut was drowned. I think he had, perhaps, been drinking, and was a little full when he went up. I used to have an employee who sometimes made ascensions in my place. He would always go up with a jaw on, and I was often afraid when he ascended 2,000 or 3,000 feet he would fall off the trapse-bar."

In order to present to the world what Nevada is capable of doing in an agricultural way, the GAZETTE will arrange anything sent to it, in an attractive manner at the Pavilion during Fair week. Apples and other fruit, grain of all kinds, potatoes of different varieties, vegetables of every description, hay, etc., will be arranged, due credit given, and everything necessary to make an attractive display, carried out. We make this offer in order to enable those who cannot come to the Fair to send something; and again a farmer who cannot afford the time, for instance, of preparing but one box of apples for exhibition would hesitate about putting it in alone, when, if exhibited in a State collection, it would show off to better advantage. Parties sending in any article can rest assured of having it properly entered, and if awarded a premium the same will be forwarded to them as soon as collected. Exhibits are respectfully solicited, not only from the farmers in Nevada, but from those in Lassen, Modoc, Sierra and Plumas counties, California. All who wish to avail themselves of our offer should carefully mark their names on the articles sent and write the GAZETTE that such and such a thing had been sent for exhibition. It will save us lots of trouble by sending the truck for exhibition the week before Fair.

ANYONE intending to make an exhibit of cattle, horses, sheep or other live stock at the coming State Fair will greatly oblige the GAZETTE by sending a full description of each animal they intend to exhibit, what class entered in and any other information that will be of interest to the public. It will assist us greatly in writing up the Fair and avoid mistakes.

Last Night's Shooting.

Ortiz, the man who shot down Officer Nash last night while in the peaceful discharge of his duty is a treacherous, drunken, tin-horn loafer, with not even the redeeming qualification of being peaceable, and deserves to be taken out and hanged to the first lamp post. He is no earthly account to himself or anyone else and has cost this county hundreds of dollars. He has been trying to kill somebody for a year or more, and it is more than likely that he has at last succeeded in killing one of our best citizens, a fearless officer and a noble-hearted fellow, for there are no better men than Dick Nash. Reno is harboring, at all times, a worthless element, by being situated on a transcontinental line of railroad, and there has been times in the past when the tar bucket has had a purifying effect on the community, but this seems to be an unprovoked attempt at murder and possibly harsher means might be resorted to with good effect that would teach that element a lesson they would not soon forget. The life of a man like Dick Nash is worth a whole world full of such fellows as Ortiz, and while the GAZETTE believes in upholding the law as a general proposition, there are cases that seem to demand prompt and decisive action. Is this one of them?

Judge Sawyer's will, filed yesterday, will be a surprise to the public. It was generally supposed that the Judge was poor, for the reason his friends gave for the retention of his judicial office, when ill health had virtually incapacitated him for performing the duties thereof, was that he had only his salary to depend upon. The fact is that his executors declare the estate to be worth $300,000. It is therefore probably worth much more. The San Francisco Report says: It is an interesting fact, all things considered, that the executors are Leland Stanford, C. F. Crocker and Timothy Hopkins. The deceased left nothing for charitable purposes in his will, having apparently given unostentatiously during his lifetime.

BRAZIL'S NEW IMMIGRANTS.
Large Numbers Are Prosperous and Contented.

There are satisfactory reports from Rio de Janeiro about the condition of the one hundred thousand Italian, Polish, German and Hebrew immigrants who have settled in Brazil within the last two or three years. They are exceedingly well treated by the authorities and the new republic, and by the native citizens of localities in which they may be pleased to take up their abode. Those of them who desire land have no difficulty in procuring it, and those who seek employment in the mines, or in trades, or at unskilled labor do not need to remain idle.

Such of the immigrants as have taken up the work of cultivating the soil, says the Chicago Tribune, find that they can raise many kinds of fruits and other natural products which they never saw in Europe; that the fertility of the soil surpasses the reports they had heard of it, and that the climate in many regions of the republic is entirely satisfactory to them. They find also that free public schools have been established by the central and provisional governments, and that a system of universal education will soon be adopted.

So favorable are the accounts that the immigrants have sent back to the countries whence they came that the Brazilian authorities look for a vast increase of immigration during the coming year, especially from Italy and Prussian Poland. The great landlords in the last-named country are alarmed by the flight of thousands of their laborers to Brazil, but there is no likelihood of the success of their efforts to prevent it. Italy can spare several millions of her people, who are sure to improve their condition by settlement in Brazil.

Furthermore, it is known that the rich Jew, Baron Hirsch, has offered to transport half a million Russian Jews to any part of the South American continent, and the probability is that Brazil will be the country chosen for them. The Brazilian government is doing all that it can do under the circumstances to encourage immigration, but it will do much more as soon as its affairs are in perfect order, so that the funds needed for the work can be appropriated.

SLANG AND ITS DERIVATIONS.
Fact Relating to the Origin of Certain Words and Phrases.

Within the present century (probably) a good many Hebrew words have come into English slang through the medium of "Yiddish," e. g., showy, (low Hebrew, "shaphel") "gropoh," a thief, (Hebrew, "gambah," pronounced "gonof" by Polish-Jews; Mr. Leland writes incorrectly "ganef.") The greater part says the Antheneum, of the vocabulary of slang, however, is purely of English origin, consisting of humorously-metaphorical uses of ordinary words, the metaphor being often so far-fetched as to be of the nature of a riddle. Slang words of this type have often passed into standard use; the ordinary French words for "head," "cheek," "leg," for instance, represent the vulgar Latin words for "pot," "porc," and "kneecap."

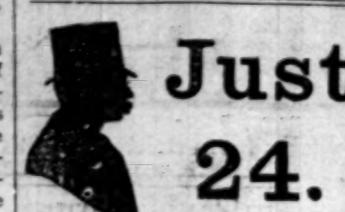

Of course, a numerous metaphorical expression may acquire a considerable degree of proverbial currency without thereby becoming slang. It passes into the original point of the joke is no longer distinctly remembered, and the expression continues to be used merely as an eccentric substitute for the recognized term. At a later stage sometimes the word or phrase has become so general that all its grotesque associations have disappeared, and it becomes a permanent addition to the resources of the literary language. A good example of these three stages of development may be found in the history of the word "budget," as denoting the financial proposals of the chancellor of the exchequer. In the reign of George II, the word was used with conscious allusion to the celebrated pamphlet which ridiculed Sir R. Walpole as a conjurer, opening his "budget" or "bag of tricks." Afterward it must, for a time, have been current as slang; but, as it supplied a want, it was soon taken into the ordinary vocabulary, and at the present time a chancellor of the exchequer would, as a matter of course, speak of his own "budget" without any thought of the uncomplimentary sense which the word originally expressed.

FEIGNED HYSTERICS.
How a Woman Made Money by Getting Hysterical Fits in Depots.

"What's the matter with the lady?" inquired a Pittsburgh Dispatch reporter of a physician who was working with a woman at the Union depot yesterday. She was lying on one of the benches, and apparently had had a fainting spell. "Oh, she has had a hysterical fit," he replied carelessly. "She is all right, and nobody need be worried about her. This woman may be all right, but I have my doubts about it. I had hard work trying to open her eyelids, and she evidently held them. It is an old gag, you know, of some women, to faint in public places, where they can excite sympathy and have a collection taken. I know of one who used to have hysterical spells with great regularity at hotels and depots. Invariably money was collected for her benefit, and she walked off with the stuff, only to faint away again in another public place. She always had a pathetic tale to tell, and it took the police a good while before they tumbled to her swindling game. It is an easy matter for a woman to become hysterical, and they can bring on the fit when they feel like it."

Students in Paris.
From inquiries which have been made at Paris, it appears that last year there were 1,071 foreign students there, and this is represented as a fair average. The Germans amounted to only nineteen, while the Austrians numbered one less. There were 154 British students and 292 Russians and Poles. The Balkan peninsula sent the large contingents of 315 Greeks, Turks, Roumanians, Servians and Bulgarians being included in this category. The schools of medicine and law appropriated by far the greater number, for while 729 attended the former, 111 attended at the latter. The faculty of theology only had one foreign student.

Marshall, Brunswick House, S. F.; Mrs. C. Melvin, 126 Kearny St., S. F., and many others who have found relief from constipation and sick headaches. G. W. Vincent, of 6 Terence Court, S. I recognized in it an herb the Mexicans used to give to us in the early 50's for bowel troubles. (I came to Cal. in 1852,) and I knew it would help me and it has. For the first time in years I can sleep well and my system is regular. The old Mexican herbs in this respect are a certain cure in constipation and bowel troubles." Ask for

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd of Groton, S. D., we quote: "War took with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends in earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My Husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He took it with great interest. It took in eight bottles; it has cured me and I thank God I am now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Wm. Pinniger's druggist, regular size 50 c. and $1. Sold at 25 cents by S. J. Hodgkinson.

OFFICER DICK NASH SHOT,

By a Vicious and Treacherous Mexican Gambler.

About 12 o'clock last night, officer Richard Nash was shot down while in the performance of his duty, by one Louis Ortiz, a desperate and treacherous character, that has heretofore given the officers of Reno more trouble than all the criminal element of the town. It appears that he returned to Reno on last night's train from the west, which arrived after 10 o'clock, and during the evening appeared in the bar-room of the Grand Central Hotel. He was indulging in drink, but no indication of any serious trouble was shown until about 12 o'clock, midnight, when the proprietor of the hotel, Dan O'Keefe, told his visitors that he must close up and requested them all to leave the bar-room or go to bed. As the house was full to overflowing and Ortiz wanted a bed, to accommodate him, Tom McCormack, the bar tender, offered to share his bed with Ortiz, and took him up to his room and left him while he returned. Ortiz, however, came right down again and showed no disposition to retire, and Dan O'Keefe again requested everybody to get out, and proceeded to close the doors. Ortiz, Tom Welch, and others went out on the front porch, where Ortiz sat down on a bench, pulled out his revolver, and fired a shot, without any words with any one, so far as is known. The ball struck Tom Welch in the buttock, and he stumbled and fell to the ground off the sidewalk.

This is Tom McCormack ran out and said to Ortiz: "Put that up! What do you want to be shooting for?"

Ortiz made a reply and said: "I want to kill some—of—" He fired another shot just as McCormack made a grab for his pistol. The ball struck McCormack's coat on the right side, near the lower button, and was stopped. Ortiz then said: "I think they're the prettiest girls I ever saw in my life." Buy the ring from Richard Herz.

The Walker Lake Bulletin says: Mrs. P. M. Bowler left on last Monday's train for Huafakers, near Reno, where she will remain for about two weeks.

H. K. Kennedy, an inmate of the Insane Asylum, committed from Storey county, died there yesterday. A relative arrived from Virginia City last night, and it was decided to inter her in appearance.

"Weak and weary describes the condition of many people debilitated by the warm weather, disease or overeating. Hood's Sanaparilla is just the medicine needed to build up and strengthen the body, purify and restore the lost appetite.

It is proposed in all seriousness to preserve the dead by nickel-plating. Should this custom prevail the most plebeian of posterity will be able to point with pride to their polished ancestors. Order full suits from John Sunderland.

It was reported by travelers arriving on this morning's train that the murderer of Gallevette, Superintendent of the Derbec mine, was caught and arrested at Rocklin last night by a conductor of one of the passenger trains. No particulars were obtained, and the GAZETTE gives that party as was current this morning.

"Ineng" To-morrow night the theater goers of this city will have probably the rarest treat that has ever been offered them in the appearance of Charles Dickens, the cleverest and most magnificent comedian on the American stage and his picked company of comedy players in the new roaring success "Ineng" by Mrs. R. Pacheco.

The star play and company are perfect, and it may be years before another company of equal importance visits the town, as the schedule of the railroad is very inconvenient for them.

Coming to the Fair. The GAZETTE is informed that Joe Marzen of Lovelock will be here Fair week and with the same family of cattle he exhibited at Sacramento and Reno two years ago. He will have on exhibition 28 head, half male and half female, including 14 young bulls of the short horn variety.

Procure it Before Leaving Home. Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass County, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 26th of Aug. M. J. Davis, while en route to Gilroy, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. WHOLESALE BUTCHERY.

A Story of the Bloody Deeds of Two Brothers.

They Vowed Vengeance Upon Confederate
Deserters and Scores of Deaths Told of Their Deathly Work.

Near New Holland, Ga., there is a little swamp near the road. At its edge stands a large white oak tree. Years ago this spot was often pointed out as the scene of the murder of twelve men, and the place bore the reputation of being haunted. It was said the rattling of chains and groans and prayers for mercy could be distinctly heard by people. No one ever stopped to investigate, as we can testify from personal experience, says a writer in the New York Dispatch, having heard the gossip some fourteen years ago, and having also done some of the most dismal traveling in all our eventful careers.

But to the story: Howard Thompson was a witness to the killing, which occurred in 1863, he being ten years old at the time. The killing was done by Bob and Ben Jordan, of Pickens county, and the murdered men were deserters who had been arrested in Gilmer county.

While the Jordan boys were in the confederate army a crowd of deserters visited the house of their father, assaulted their sister and the wife of Bob Jordan and carried their father, who was about seventy years old, through the mountains a distance of sixty miles, and subjected him to many shocking events.

Then the Jordan boys returned home and began their record of killing. Every man known to be a deserter or a skulker became a victim of their unerring rifles. Bob kept a list of the names and dates in a small book. He was pursued one day and in crossing a river lost his book. It contained one hundred and twenty-five names. After that he kept no record. This was before the killing near Gainesville.

Bob and Ben Jordan became recruiting officers and arrested twenty-six men in Gilman county, and started with them to the front. On the way two escaped and twenty-four were lodged in Gainesville jail. Next morning the Jordans picked out twelve whom they had the best reason to believe had been implicated in the outrages upon their family and chained them to this white oak tree on the New Holland road. They stood them up in a row and Bob Jordan marched slowly along the line with a large army pistol and shot them with his own hand one at a time. Some fell on their knees and prayed, while others looked their slayer square in the face and died with an oath on their lips. Among the number was a fragile boy about fifteen who was chained to a very large man.

The boy was shot first and the man supported him in a standing posture until he himself was shot, when they fell to the ground together.

Those twelve men were hastily buried in a trench dug upon the spot, but after the war they were exhumed by the federal authorities and removed to the national cemetery at Chattanooga.

After the war Bob Jordan was shot to death in Florida by a weak, sickly young man upon whom he was imposing. Ben was stabbed to death in a barroom in Texas.

The spot where the killing occurred is now in cultivation, but the old tree still remains. The land is part of the tract which Tom Daniels bought about two years ago for eighteen hundred dollars and sold a few days ago for six thousand dollars.
